POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT

Position: Research Technician
Kansas Artificial Breeding Service Unit (KABSU)
Department of Animal Sciences and Industry
Kansas State University, Manhattan

Appointment: Full time, 12 month, term position

Position Description and Responsibilities

- Feeding and handling of bulls
- Collection of bovine semen by electro-ejaculation or by artificial vagina
- Handling and cleaning of equipment used for semen collection
- Cleaning of pens and maintenance of other equipment and facilities

Required Qualifications

- Earned B.S. degree at time of hire
- Practical knowledge and experience with bulls
- Experience operating facilities maintenance equipment such as skid steer, mower, and welder
- Experience handling liquid nitrogen, semen, and other semen collection equipment
- Capable of general repair and maintenance of equipment, grounds, and facilities
- Occasional overnight travel

The Department of Animal Sciences and Industry offers strong extension, teaching, and research programs with approximately 900 undergraduate and 100 graduate students, many of whom pursue employment in the livestock industry. The department consists of approximately 45 faculty members. More information about the department may be obtained at: http://www.asi.k-state.edu

Application Procedure. Submit cover letter clearly articulating how the candidate meets required qualifications and copies of all post-secondary education transcripts, and names and contact information of three references to Dr. Tom Taul, KABSU, Department of Animal Sciences and Industry, Kansas State University, Manhattan, KS 66506-0201, telephone: 785-539-3554, email: ttaul@k-state.edu (electronic submissions preferred).

Review of Applications. Review of applications will begin February 14, 2014 and will continue until a suitable candidate is identified.

Kansas State University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer and actively seeks diversity among its employees
Background check required