

Celebrating 80 Years

National Recognition

- 1942 – Dean Umberger – Inducted to House of Pioneers
- 1977 – Certificate of Merit - Beverly Kindler, Ray Mann, Wendell Moyer, and Earl Van Meter
- 1979 – Certificate of Merit - Elinor Anderson, Dale Edelbute, Eugene Harris, and Ann Domsch
- 1981 – John Haas - National Friend of Extension Award
- 1984 – Lois Redman – International Award
- 1990 – Steve Morris - National Friend of Extension Award
- 1990 – Ralf Graham - Regional DSA
- 2003 – Jim Lindquist – National DSA
- 2005 – Dick Wootton - National Distinguished Ruby Award
- 2009 – Jim Lindquist - National Distinguished Ruby Award
- 2009 – April Mason – Regional Visionary Leadership Award

Significant Achievements

- The Professional Outlook published since 1935. The original purpose of this publication was “to provide information about professional opportunities, reports of professional meetings, and information of interest to the professional Extension worker.”
- ESP made “significant contribution to build National 4-H Center ($4,000).
- 1990 – Alpha Rho ESP Chapter helps update Umberger Hall including erecting a new sign and refurbishing a conference room.

Historical Tidbits

- 1st Alpha Rho Chapter meeting held March 21, 1930 and was called by Dean Umberger. Dues were $.50 per year.
- 1st Banquet held October 29, 1930.
- 1944 – Purchased 2 $100.00 War Bonds. During WWII Alpha Rho discontinued 2/3 publishing of The Professional Outlook and also eliminated luncheon meetings to support the war effort.
- 1985 – Alpha Rho goes computer with help from Ralf Graham.

ESP

National Recognition

- 1942 – Dean Umberger - House of Pioneers
- 1977 – Certificate of Merit - Beverly Kindler, Ray Mann, Wendell Moyer, and Earl Van Meter
- 1979 – Certificate of Merit - Elinor Anderson, Dale Edelbute, Eugene Harris, and Ann Domsch.
- 1981 – John Haas - National Friend of Extension Award.
- 1984 – Lois Redman – International Award.
- 1990 – Ralf Graham - Regional DSA.
- 2005 – Dick Wootton - National Distinguished Ruby Award.
- 2009 – Jim Lindquist - National Distinguished Ruby Award.
- 2009 – Dr. April Mason – Regional Visionary Leadership Award.

Significant Achievements

- The Professional Outlook published since 1935. The original purpose of this publication was “to provide information about professional opportunities, reports of professional meetings, and information of interest to the professional Extension worker.”
- ESP made a significant contribution to build National 4-H Center ($4,000).
- 1990 – Alpha Rho ESP Chapter helps update Umberger Hall including erecting a new sign and refurbishing a conference room.

Historical Tidbits

- 1st Alpha Rho Chapter meeting held March 21, 1930 and was called by Dean Umberger. Dues were $.50 per year.
- 1st Banquet held October 29, 1930.
- 1944 – Purchased 2 $100.00 War Bonds. Also during WWII Alpha Rho discontinued 2/3 publishing of The Professional Outlook and also eliminated luncheon meetings.
- 1985 – Alpha Rho goes computer with help from Ralf Graham

Celebrating 80 Years

National Recognition

- 1942 – Dean Umberger -House of Pioneers
- 1977 – Certificate of Merit - Beverly Kindler, Ray Mann, Wendell Moyer, and Earl Van Meter.
- 1979 – Certificate of Merit - Elinor Anderson, Dale Edelbute, Eugene Harris, and Ann Domsch.
- 1981 – John Haas - National Friend of Extension Award.
- 1984 – Lois Redman – International Award.
- 1990 -Steve Morris - National Friend of Extension Award.
- 1990 - Ralf Graham -Regional DSA.
- 2003 – Jim Lindquist – National DSA.
- 2005 –Dick Wootton -National Distinguished Ruby Award.
- 2009 – Jim Lindquist - National Distinguished Ruby Award.
- 2009 – Dr. April Mason – Western Region Visionary Leadership Award.

Celebrating 80 Years

ESP

Significant Achievements

- The Professional Outlook published since 1935.
- ESP made “significant contribution to build National 4-H Center ($4,000).
- 1990 – Alpha Rho ESP Chapter helps update Umberger Hall including erecting a new sign and refurbishing a

Historical Tidbits

- 1st Alpha Rho Chapter meeting held March 21, 1930 and was called by Dean Umberger. Dues were $.50 per year.
- 1st Banquet held October 29, 1930.
- 1944 – Purchased 2 $100.00 War Bonds. Also during WWII Alpha Rho discontinued 2/3 publishing of The Professional Outlook and also eliminated luncheon meetings.